

Shetkari Shikshan Prasarak Mandal's

Bhagwan Mahavidyalaya (Arts, Commerce and Science), Ashti.

Tal. Ashti, Dist. Beed- 414203 (MS)

BEST PRACTICES OF THE INSTITUTE (ACADEMIC YEAR: 2018-2019)

---

Best Practice I):

1) Title of the Practice –Tree plantation at Renuka Devi Temple, Belgaon. Tal. Ashti, Dist. Beed

2) Objectives

- 1) The plantation was done to embellish the temple premise.
- 2) To make temple Premise celebrated and eco-friendly
- 3) To make the temple premise blissful peaceful too many plants were cultivated.
- 4) To endorse the importance of the tree planting in the society.
- 5) The public places such as the temples, the mosques and the churches should keep pollution free. The college should take an initiative to make these places sustainable.
- 6) Through plantation of the flowers and the trees will definitely give these people a lot of satisfaction and contentment.
- 7) During the summer, the animals and the birds need a shelter to protect themselves from the sunburn so tree plantation is indispensable.
- 8) To aware people about these activities is very the crucial, and The College plays this role effortlessly well.

3) The context:-

- 1) Most of the public places do not appear to be ecologically sound.
- 2) Usually a better environment is not found at the public places, like various religious places.

3) To lessen the amount of pain, grief and fatigue, the people generally visits religious places for harmony and satisfaction.

4) There is no adequate amount of oxygen at the public places.

5) The students and the society do not appear in implanting trees at the public places and religious places.

4) The practice:-

1) As a social duty of the college, the selection of a chairman for this practice was made under the principal's supervision.

2) To make this practice alive the college lecturers, NSS student's lifetime education and extension departments' students played a valuable role.

3) The teacher of the college examined the temple premise and organized a plan about the tree plantation.

4) The teachers of the college collected funds for the tree plantation and purchase nets for the trees.

5) The students of the lifelong extension department and NSS helped to preserve the plants thus the tree preservation was successful.

6) The residents also helped the college to make this project successful.

5) Evidence of success

1) Due to the cultivation of the flowers and the trees the magnificence of the Renuka Devi Temple has amplified.

2) Every person who visits this temple, feels joyful and contented.

3) The students and the villagers understood the importance of the plantation and environment conservation.

4) The Renuka Devi temple has become environmental.

5) The people get adequate oxygen at the temple premise.

6) An emigrant of the community even feels that importance of this sacred place.

7) This Temple region has started to be seen as an inspiration for the others.

6) Problems encountered and resource required.

1) To plant the trees and the flowers with the help of iron vessel nets, for drip irrigation financial funding is needed. But there are many difficulties while attempting to collect these funds.

2) To take care of these trees, the college has to play a dynamic role. The students and the teachers have to pay maximum time to support the trees plantation camp.

7) Notes:-

The religious places and the public places play a crucial role in our life. So an attention should be given to preserve them. For this purpose the college students are convinced to look after these places. If UGC can provide financial assistance to the college for this practice, it can be successfully applied in those communities. The college will take Corporation of the local government in order to make this program successful.

Best Practice – II:

1. Title of the Practice: Publication of Annual College Magazine “Gangai-Babaji”

(A) Objectives: -

1. To inculcate the reading habit among the students.
2. To inculcate the writing skills among the students.
3. To update knowledge of students and parents.
4. To express thoughts and feelings of students a platform is provided through this practice.
5. To collect all the college activities and events.
6. To produce budding poet and writers.

(B) Context:-

The college magazine reflects the identity of the educational institution. The young and talented writers find their first exposure through this specific medium. They are overwhelmed when they see their articles published in college magazine, and it gives them an immense self-satisfaction and that helps in developing self- confidence as well.

(C) Practice:-

The college magazine helps students to improve their reading and writing skills to the great extent. It even helps them in providing possible opportunities to improve their creative and imaginary writing. They are given a chance to write and express their own ideas in different languages. The magazine contains a number of articles, poems, stories, etc.

(D) Evidence of success:-

Through this event students and teachers are able to express their ideas. They spend their leisure in the library, reading good books. In this way, the reading habit is inculcated among the students and teachers.

(E) Problems encountered and resources required:-

Plagiarism is one of the worst obstacles faced by the Editorial Board. The College is situated in the rural area. Sometimes, due to less income, the college finds it difficult to allocate sufficient budget for the publication of this magazine.

(F) Note: (Optional):-

The U.G.C. should allocate adequate funds to the colleges in the rural areas which are recognised under 2(f) and 12(B), for publication of annual college magazine. Also, some philanthropists should help the colleges in this regard.

Principal
Bhagwan Mahavidyalaya,
Ashti, Tal. Ashti, Dist. Beed